

5 working days... five easy steps!

Coming on board with Denplan

Think there's a lengthy, complex process to get your new dental plan up and running? Not with Denplan!

1

It's simple, all you need to do is complete, sign and return our client agreement form and employee data template.

2

Our administration team will activate your scheme.

3

A welcome email or letter will be sent out to your employees.

4

If there's anything you need to know about the plan, your account manager will be your main point of contact. You'll find their details in the company welcome email.

5

You're all set! Your plan is ready to go and we're ready to help you claim back the cost of your dental treatments.
